Colloquy

2

1 THE COURT: Daniel Fried. You're charged on
2 November the 20th with disorderly conduct by allegedly
3 not complying with a lawful command to remove your 4 hands from your pockets when requested to do so. And
5 upon initiation of a frisk under 2C:33-2, that is a
6 petty disorderly persons offense carrying with it a
7 fine of up to $500 and/or a jail term of up to 30 days.
8 You're also charged with resisting arrest by allegedly 9 engaging in the physical altercation with three
10 uniformed officers under 2C:29-2. That is a disorderly
11 persons offense carrying with it a fine of up to 12 $1,000, and/or jail term of up to six months.

13 You have the right, sir, to hire a lawyer if 14 you can't afford one. The Public Defender will be 15 appointed. Or you may represent yourself with no
16 lawyer. What is your decision regarding the lawyer?

17 MR. FRIED: I've already engaged an attorney.

18 THE COURT: Who is your lawyer?

19 MR. FRIED: Alison Aryn (phonetic).

20 THE COURT: All right, I will need a letter
21 from that person within one week. That's all for 22 today. Thank you. Did you have a question?

23 MR. FRIED: I do. The Prosecutor's Office as 24 well as the Officers involved in the arrest had already
25 all agreed that the matter was being dismissed.

Colloquy

1 THE COURT: I don't want to hear anything
2 about an agreement, sir, because there's, excuse me a
3 second, there's no agreement in front of me today. I'm 4 not trying to be discourteous to you.

5 MR. FRIED: I understand, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: You have a lawyer.

7 MR. FRIED: I just came --

8 THE COURT: Excuse me a second if you would.
9 I thought you had -- I asked you if you had a question.
10 You started telling me, making a statement. I'm not 11 going to allow you to do that. Not because I'm being 12 discourteous to you. I have no, the only person that 13 can tell me that there's an agreement in the case is 14 your lawyer and the Prosecuting attorney when they come
15 in front of me properly. And as a result I am not 16 going to allow you to make any more comments regarding 17 any alleged agreement. I will need a letter from your 18 lawyer within one week. Thank you, sir.

19 (Court hears other matters)

20 THE COURT: State against Daniel Fried. I
21 called this case earlier. Mr. Prosecutor, you put it
22 back up.

23 MR. BUONO: Judge, the State's going to
24 exercise prosecutorial discretion. With a stipulation
25 of probable cause from the defendant and dismiss the

1 charges.

2 THE COURT: All right, the Prosecutor wants
3 me to dismiss the complaints against with the
4 understanding that you are stipulating without a
5 request that there was probable cause for the issuance
6 of the complaint. Is that what your understanding is 7 and do you agree to that?

8 MR. FRIED: Yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right, the charges against
10 you will be dismissed. Thank you, sir.

11 MR. FRIED: Thank you.

Dated: 1/17/12

ANSWER:

- (a) Defendant responded to State Highway 72 at milepost 4 in Woodland Township in reference to an erratic motor vehicle operator complaint;
- (b) At approximately 6:43pm a phone call was received by New Jersey State Police dispatch from a motorist advising of a white van that was driving all over the road. Defendant was dispatched to the location at approximately 6:56pm and arrived within seconds of being dispatched. Defendant departed the location upon the completion of the stop at 8:49pm.

7. In regard to the incident on November 20, 2010 involving the plaintiff which forms the basis of this lawsuit, state with specificity everything that happened from the time you arrived at the scene of plaintiff's arrest and detention until the time that you left that location.

ANSWER:

Defendant can not state with specificity everything that happened on the date of the incident giving rise to this matter, as it occurred over one year ago and Defendant cannot recall the events in specific detail. However, Defendant issued a report for this matter and based on the report he issued, he states as follows: On November 20, 2010, Defendant responded to an erratic motor vehicle operator complaint on State Highway 72 in the vicinity of mile post 4. Upon defendant's arrival at the location, he observed plaintiff's vehicle parked on the shoulder of the highway and saw plaintiff emerge from a wooded area and then enter his van. Defendant approached plaintiff while he sat in his van and identified himself. Defendant asked plaintiff if he was okay, but plaintiff did not respond as he looked down at the steering wheel of his vehicle. Defendant again asked the plaintiff if he required any assistance and plaintiff stated "What do you want?". Defendant noticed that plaintiff's eyelids were drooping and appeared to have slurred speech. Plaintiff then placed his head on the driver's side door as if he were sleeping. Due to the lack of the odor of an alcoholic beverage in plaintiff's vehicle and on his breath, and due to plaintiff's demeanor and physical appearance, Defendant asked plaintiff if he was having a medical complication and offered to dispatch EMS if needed. The plaintiff responded "No" to defendant's question and offer. Defendant then asked plaintiff where he was coming from and he responded, "Long Beach Island."

Defendant asked plaintiff to produce his driver's license, but plaintiff refused to produce it and began talking to his dogs that were also in the vehicle. Defendant made several attempts to gain plaintiff's attention, but plaintiff did not respond. Defendant then asked plaintiff to exit his vehicle so he could continue to question him, as he was unresponsive to him while he sat in vehicle. Plaintiff exited his vehicle and was escorted to the front of his vehicle where Defendant continued to question the plaintiff in regard to his physical appearance. Plaintiff again refused to respond to Defendant's questions. Defendant then asked plaintiff if he was diabetic and plaintiff stated "Yes! You didn't know that?" Defendant asked plaintiff if he took insulin and plaintiff stated "No. Yes. No. I don't have diabetes, I told you that."

Plaintiff then began to walk towards the fog line on the shoulder of the highway, and defendant ordered him several times to remain off of the roadway for his personal safety; but plaintiff ignored defendant's orders. At this time, Trooper Tetzlaff arrived at the location. Defendant advised Trooper Tetzlaff of plaintiff's demeanor, and both Troopers approached the plaintiff for further questioning. Trooper Tetzlaff ordered the plaintiff to remove his hands from his front pants pockets, but plaintiff refused to follow the commands. Trooper Tetzlaff then attempted to perform a frisk of the plaintiff for weapons, but plaintiff resisted and continued to move away from the Troopers. Trooper Tetzlaff took plaintiff down onto the grass embankment to secure him, but plaintiff continued to resist handcuffing despite verbal commands to stop. A Pemberton Township Police Officer arrived to the location and assisted the Troopers in effecting plaintiff's arrest. During that time, plaintiff continued to resist handcuffing by turning his arms into his chest underneath this torso and by kicking his legs at defendant and Trooper Tetzlaff, which necessitated the use of mechanical force by defendant. Plaintiff was struck one time on his right leg. Plaintiff was eventually handcuffed, searched, read his rights per Miranda and secured in Trooper Tetzlaff's troop car.

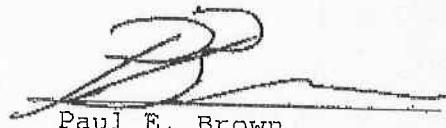

Once in Trooper Tetzlaff's patrol car, plaintiff advised the Troopers that he was a diabetic, was in low blood sugar shock and needed some sugar. Emergency medical services was requested to be dispatched to the location. Virtua paramedics and Woodland Volunteer EMS personnel arrived to ascertain plaintiff's condition. The paramedics determined plaintiff's blood sugar was 26. The plaintiff was treated at the scene by the paramedics and was transported to Southern Ocean County Hospital for further evaluation and treatment. Defendant then departed the location.

CERTIFICATION

I hereby certify that I am the Defendant in the above captioned matter and that the foregoing statements made by me and/or my attorneys are true based on my recollection and personal knowledge.

 8 Q Is there any -- do you carry your insulin,
 9 and whatever you inject it with, with you when you
 10 travel?
 11 A Yes.
 12 Q Always?
 13 A I am insulin dependent.
 14 Q Which means you have to have it with you
 15 all the time?
 16 A Yes.
 17 Q In addition to insulin, do you take other
 18 medication for diabetes?
 19 A No.
 20 Q When were you diagnosed with diabetes?
 21 A When I was eight.
 22 Q Eight?
 23 A Eight.
 24 Q Do you test your blood sugar with a meter

DANIEL J. FRIED

1 at regular intervals?
 2 A Yes.
 3 Q How often?
 4 A Four to eight times a day.
 5 Q Does that break into every two hours? You
 6 don't do it when you're sleeping at night, right?
 7 A I take it at least before each meal, and the 8 rest of the time as needed, at least before each meal,
 9 two times at night after dinner.
 10 Q Okay. Now Paragraph Number 23, you see
 11 that?
 12 A Yes.
 13 Q It says, "On or about November 20, 2010,
 14 Plaintiff Daniel J. Fried was leaving his shore house
 15 on Long Beach Island".
 16 Did I read that correctly?
 17 A Yes.
 18 Q What time did you leave?

 15 restaurant?
 16 A No.
 17 Q Did everybody else?
 18 A Yes.
 19 Q Why didn't you stop?
 20 A This is when the incident in question occurred.
 21 Q Other than to stop at the diner, where
 22 were you on route to after leaving the shore house?
 23 A Home.
 24 Q And how far is it from the shore house on

DANIEL J. FRIED

1 Long Beach Island to your home?
 2 A An hour and 15 minutes, give or take.
 3 Q You don't know in miles about how far?
 4 A I'm afraid not.
 5 Q How far was it from the shore house to
 6 where this incident took place with the State Police?
 7 A 15 miles, 18 miles, maybe.
 8 Q When you left the shore house, you
 9 understood there had been an agreement between 10 everybody that you were all going to stop at this
 11 diner?
 12 A Yes.
 13 Q And by the time you got to the diner from 14 leaving the house, did you forget that you were going
 15 to do that? Or was there some other reason why you
 16 didn't stop?
 17 A I was having a diabetic episode.
 18 Q And how soon after you left the beach
 19 house did the diabetic episode begin?
 20 MS. ROBINSON: Objection.
 21 THE WITNESS: I don't know how to estimate
 22 that.
 23 BY MR. RIZZO:
 24 Q Did it happen -- you said there is a

1 bridge going over?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Do you remember if it happened before you
4 got to the bridge?

5 MS. ROBINSON: Objection. Lack of
6 foundation, calls for a medical opinion as to when the 7 episode started.

8 MR. RIZZO: Counsel, he experienced the
9 episode.

10 MS. ROBINSON: I am noting my objection
11 for the record. You don't have to argue with me. I'm 12 objecting, as is my right to do.

13 BY MR. RIZZO:

14 Q Go ahead, sir. Did it begin --

15 A Prior to when I got to the bridge.

16 Q Prior to. And how did you know it was 17 beginning?

18 A I don't know how to answer this question.

19 Q How did you feel?

20 A I was -- I became less than lucid very suddenly.

21 Q Okay. And that was before the bridge?

22 A I believe so.

23 Q Okay. Is this dinner right after you get 24 off the bridge?

DANIEL J. FRIED

1 A You'd have to define "right after".

2 Q Well, within, let's say, one mile of
3 getting off the bridge?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Were you aware you were going past the 6 dinner when you did?

7 A No.

8 Q Were you aware of your surroundings at 9 that time?

10 A No.

11 Q But you were aware you were having an 12 insulin drop in your blood sugar level?

13 A No.

14 Q Okay. Were you in a state of confusion at
15 that time?

16 MS. ROBINSON: Objection.

17 THE WITNESS: If that's how you'd like to 18 use to describe it, yes.

19 BY MR. RIZZO:

20 Q What I'd rather have is you describe it
21 for me.

22 MS. ROBINSON: Objection, that's not a
23 question.

24 BY MR. RIZZO:

1 Q Yes, the question is describe it for me.
2 MS. ROBINSON: Describe what and at what
3 time?
4 MR. RIZZO: Read back the question,
5 please.
6 (Pertinent portion of the record is read
7 back as follows:

8 "QUESTION: Okay. Were you in a state of 9 confusion at that time?"

10 MS. ROBINSON: Same objection.

11 BY MR. RIZZO:

12 Q Go ahead and describe for me what your 13 feeling, what your state was, when you first began to 14 realize that you were having an insulin-related
15 episode?

16 MS. ROBINSON: Objection.

17 THE WITNESS: There was no when I first
18 began to realize. I was unaware of my condition or my 19 surroundings.

20 BY MR. RIZZO:

21 Q Okay. So you're saying this was an 22 immediate occurrence? There was no slow drop in your 23 sugar where you began to feel different bodily changes?

24 MS. ROBINSON: Objection.

DANIEL J. FRIED

1 THE WITNESS: No.

2 BY MR. RIZZO:

3 Q No tingling of the arms?

4 MS. ROBINSON: Objection.

5 BY MR. RIZZO:

6 Q No lightheadedness? None of those things?
7 MS. ROBINSON: Objection.

8 THE WITNESS: I'm not sure where you are
9 getting these things that supposedly happened, but no.

10 BY MR. RIZZO:

11 Q Okay. Were you -- as you came off the 12 bridge and began to come closer to the dinner, were you
13 aware of your surroundings at that point in time?

14 A No.

15 Q What were you aware of, if you can
16 remember?

17 MS. ROBINSON: Objection.

18 THE WITNESS: I can't.

19 BY MR. RIZZO:

20 Q You can't remember?

21 A No.

22 Q Do you remember any part of the trip
23 between leaving the shore house and when you first
24 encountered the State Police?

1 MS. ROBINSON: Objection.
 2 MR. RIZZO: What is the objection?
 3 MS. ROBINSON: You haven't established for
 4 the record that he remembers meeting the State Police,
 5 so that's an impossible question for him to answer.

6 MR. RIZZO: Then why are we here.
 7 MS. ROBINSON: There is a police report.
 8 There is an MVR tape.

9 MR. RIZZO: With the State Police.
 10 Katherine, please, don't make absurd objections.
 11 MS. ROBINSON: I'm not. I'm making
 12 objections that I'm entitled to do.

13 BY MR. RIZZO:

14 Q Mr. Fried, from the time that you came off
 15 the bridge, let's say, until you encountered the State
 16 Police, do you have a recollection of any of your 17 travels?

18 A No.

19 Q Do you have a recollection of encountering
 20 the State Police?

21 A Not until I attempted to make them aware of what
 22 my situation was when I was in the back of the police
 23 car laying on my broken limb.

24 Q And that was after the initial interaction

DANIEL J. FRIED

1 between the two officers that you had some sort of
 2 communication with; is that correct?

3 MS. ROBINSON: Objection.

4 THE WITNESS: Yes, that is correct.

5 BY MR. RIZZO:

6 Q You don't remember anything that happened
 7 between you and the two troopers before you were in the 8 backseat of the trooper car trying to explain your 9 situation to them?

10 A No.

11 Q Have you ever had a same or similar type
 12 episode prior to November 20, 2010?

13 A No.

14 Q Prior to leaving the shore house, when was 15 the last time you had eaten?

16 A I don't know how to accurately answer that. I
 17 mean, we were working around the house eating
 18 constantly.

19 Q Okay. Does increased physical activity
 20 have an effect on your blood sugar levels, that you
 21 know of?

22 A You're asking me to state a medical opinion,
 23 yes.

24 Q No, I'm asking you your personal, what

1 happens to you personally.

2 A Yes, there are those occasions.

3 Q And were you engaged in physical activity
 4 at the shore house?

5 A Yes.

6 Q So when you were doing that, was there any
 7 awareness on your part that you had to make sure to eat
 8 something so your blood sugar would not vacillate so
 9 much?

10 A I am constantly aware of that.

11 Q Did you take any precautions to ensure 12 your blood sugar would not drop when you left the 13 house?

14 A I don't know how to answer that.

15 Q Did you or did you not? Did you eat? Did
 16 you take an insulin shot? Did you use the meter?

17 A I ate prior to leaving the house.

18 Q How long before you left the house?

19 A I don't know how to answer that.

20 Q Did you check the meter, use the meter to 21 check your blood level when you left the house?

22 A No.

23 Q Did you give yourself an insulin shot in 24 the hour preceding the time you left the house?

DANIEL J. FRIED

1 A No.

2 Q Two hours?

3 A No.

4 Q Three hours?

5 A I don't know.

6 Q Now, you said you've never had the same or
 7 similar type experience before?

8 A I did say that.

9 Q Okay. That's what I'm asking. During the 10 time that you were driving from the shore house to the 11 location where you encountered the State Police, have 12 you driven that area before, on those roads before?

13 A Yes.

14 Q You were going westbound at that time,
 15 right?

16 MS. ROBINSON: Objection. What time?

17 BY MR. RIZZO:

18 Q Leaving from the shore house to go home,
 19 you were going westbound, right?

20 A North to the bridge, west.

21 Q Okay. And what routes would you normally
 22 take once you got to the bridge to the time you reached
 23 your home?

24 A I don't understand what you are asking.
